

How to dispose of household garbage

Mix them and you have "garbage"; separate them and you have "resources."

[Inquiries]
Eco-Eight Yatsushiro (Yatsushiro City Environmental Center)
299 Minato-machi, Yatsushiro
☎ 32-4675 or 34-1997

Burnable garbage

Please follow the rules below when disposing burnable garbage.

- Place your trash in Yatsushiro City-designated garbage bags for disposal.
- Please dispose of garbage at your neighborhood's specified collection areas on the designated collection dates and times.
 - Yatsushiro, Sakamoto, Izumi area... 6:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m.
 - Sencho, Kagami, Toyo area... 6:30 a.m. to 8:00 a.m.
- Cans, bottles, plastic bottles, futons, etc. cannot be disposed as burnable garbage. Separate them and bring them out on the recyclable collection days or bring them to Eco Eight Yatsushiro.

<Examples of things that can be disposed as burnable garbage >

Food waste

Waste paper

Dirty clothes, underwear

Athletic shoes, leather shoes, boots

《Garbage bags designated by Yatsushiro City》

Large bags [45ℓ, 10 bags] ¥500
Medium bags [30ℓ, 10 bags] ¥350
Small bags [30ℓ, 10 bags] ¥200
You may purchase these at stores in Yatsushiro City.

Bulky items

Furniture, appliances or other items that cannot be disposed of as burnable garbage or cannot be accepted during recyclable collection days are classified as bulky items. Please request a licensed waste collection company to take them or bring them directly to Eco-Eight Yatsushiro.

Please observe the following rules when bringing items directly to Eco-Eight Yatsushiro.

- Please only bring household garbage generated in Yatsushiro City.
- Vehicles brought directly to Eco-Eight Yatsushiro must have a maximum loading capacity of 2 tons or less.
- Quantity restrictions and acceptance conditions may apply depending on what you bring in. Please check the information on regulations carefully before bringing in your items.
- Please contact private operators for items that are difficult to dispose of on your own.

<Examples of items bulky items that may be disposed and their quantity restrictions >

Furniture, wooden products, etc.
Up to 5 per day

Bedding, carpets, Mattresses (without springs)
Up to 5 per day

Sofas, mattresses (with springs)
Up to 5 per day

Fluorescent tubes (fluorescent lamps), Light bulbs
Up to 20 per day

[Caution!]
These items cannot be processed by Eco-Eight Yatsushiro

- Industrial waste (Garbage from shops and offices)
- Waste materials from house demolition
- Tiles, bricks, concrete
- Motorcycle and automobile parts
- Fire extinguishers · LP gas cylinders Etc.

Please consult private operators for their disposal!

Eco-Eight Yatsushiro processing fees and charges

A separate fee may be required in addition to the weight fee (¥100/10 kg) when bringing the items to Eco-Eight Yatsushiro.

Recycling home appliances

Among home appliances, the following items cannot be disposed at the collection areas. Please consult with a specialty store or the store where you bought the item.

- When buying anew ... Please ask the store you will be purchasing from to take your old appliance.
- For disposals ... Pay the appliance recycling fee at the post office, and bring the appliance and the appliance recycling ticket to the designated location.

KURUME-TRANS Co.,Ltd. Yatsushiro branch, 2666-1 Shikigawachi-machi, Yatsushiro City (☎ 33-1361).

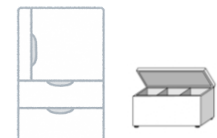

Air conditioners and outdoor units

TV (CRT, LCD, Plasma)

Washing machines and dryers

Refrigerators and freezers

Recycling personal computers

Computers (desktop and laptops) cannot be disposed of at the collection area. Please dispose of them as follows:

- Use the free courier collection service. Yatsushiro City collaborates with the company, Renet Japan Inc., to offer free collection service via courier. For more information, please visit Renet Japan Inc.'s website.
- Use the collection and recycling services of computer manufacturers. Please visit the website of the General Inc. Assoc. - PC3R Promotion Association, and contact the manufacturers of the individual items. The Association will serve as a reception counter for items that do not have a manufacturer that collects them.

Recyclables

Please follow the rules below and bring your recyclables out on the designated collection days carried out twice a month.

① Recyclables will be sorted at the collection area as shown in the following, by 8:30 a.m. on collection day.

Please properly separate and dispose of recyclables in designated nets or containers.

② Dirt and other contaminants on recyclables should be rinsed off before disposal.

[Inquiries]
Eco-Eight Yatsushiro (Yatsushiro City Environmental Center)
 299 Minato-machi, Yatsushiro
 ☎ 32-4675 or 34-1997

Glass bottles

Remove the caps and rinse the bottles
 Separate the bottles by color.
 Please do not remove labels when disposing of the bottles.

● Clear glass bottles Clear and colorless bottles that contained juice, liquor, jam, coffee powder, etc.	● Brown-colored bottles Brown colored bottles that contained juice, alcohol, nutritional drinks, over-the-counter medicines, etc.	● Bottles in other colors Bottles other than brown-colored or clear bottles, broken bottles Dispose of bottles whose color you are unsure here.	● Returnable Issho bottles or commercially available beer bottles marked as returnable
--	---	--	--

Glass and ceramics

Glass cups, porcelain plates and cups, bowls, flowerpots, etc.
 Glass, bottles, plates, and bowls that have been broken or shattered into pieces and have lost their original shape can also be disposed of here.

Cans (aluminum cans, steel cans)

Food and beverage cans should be washed before disposal. Place rusted or stained items in "Pots and other metallic items" area.

Marked cans, spray cans, and other items shown in the left, should be emptied and perforated before disposal. When perforating spray cans, please do so in a well-ventilated area to prevent combustion. Spray paint cans should be placed in the "Pots and other metallic items" area and insecticide spray cans should be placed in the "Hazardous items" area.	<h3>Metal lids</h3> Beer bottle caps, canned food lids, etc. Lids made of metal
--	---

Pots and other metallic items

Pots, pans, knives and other cutlery, wires and other fine metals, spray paint cans, etc.
 Shaving razors should be disposed as "hazardous items."

Small electrical appliances

Electrical products such as hair dryers, cameras, game consoles, watches, etc. that are roughly within 30 cm in size
 Remove and bundle electrical cords and dispose of them in the "small electrical appliances" area.
 Remove and dispose of dry cell batteries in the "Dry cell batteries" area.

Medium-sized garbage

Electrical products that are about 30 to 60 cm in size, such as microwave ovens, stoves, DVD recorders, rice cookers, etc., and products containing metal. Fans, vacuum cleaners, and bicycles may be disposed of as medium-sized garbage even if they exceed 60 cm.
 Remove and bundle electrical cords and dispose of them in the "small electrical appliances" area. Remove and dispose of dry cell batteries in the "Dry cell batteries" area.

Hazardous Items

Fluorescent tubes, light bulbs, razors, lighters, needles, mirrors, insecticide and pesticide cans, etc.

Dry cell batteries

Alkaline and manganese batteries
 Rechargeable batteries and button batteries cannot be disposed here.
 Please consult an electronics store on how to dispose of these items.

Plastic bottles

Rinse before disposal

Marked bottled containers for beverages, alcohol, seasonings, etc., as shown on the left.

Remove the label and dispose of them in the "Plastic Containers and Packaging" area.
 Plastic bottles that have been cut open and used for crafts should be disposed as burnable garbage.

Plastic containers and packaging

Please wash off any dirt.

This includes marked plastic containers, packaging, film sheets, food containers, lids, labels, and trays other than white trays, as shown on the left.

Dispose of Styrofoam trays that have stains or smells that would not go away as burnable garbage.

Paper cartons

Rinse and cut open.

Marked paper box containers as shown in the figure on the left
 Please dispose of aluminum foil-lined paper cartons as "paper containers and packaging".

Plastic bottle caps

Rinse before disposal

Try not to include lids as much as possible.
 Please dispose of seasoning vial or bottle caps as "plastic containers and packaging".

Plastics

Please wash off any dirt.

Products made entirely of plastic, such as planters, polyethylene buckets, polyethylene tanks, and plastic wardrobes

Styrofoams must be free of stains or odors. Please cut styrofoam trays that cannot be completely cleaned into small pieces, and dispose of them as burnable garbage.

Paper containers and packaging

Please remove any film linings.

Marked paper box containers, wrapping paper, paper bags, or other items as shown on the left.
 Paper items should be bundled and tied crosswise with string. They can also be disposed of after placing them in bags containing the recycling mark, as shown in the photo.

Styrofoam trays

Rinse before disposal

Styrofoam trays that contained meat, fish or other raw food
 Dispose of styrofoam trays that have stains or smells that would not go away as burnable garbage.

Cardboards

Binding with masking tape is not allowed.

Items with the recycling mark shown on the left or those with a wave-shaped cross section

Clothing and fabrics

Place leather or dirty clothes, underwear, and socks in a clear bag and dispose of them as burnable garbage.

Cut curtains into 30cm squares or smaller and dispose of them as burnable garbage. You may also bring them as is to Eco-Eight Yatsushiro.

Magazines and miscellaneous papers

Please remove any film linings.

Textbooks, paperback books, weekly magazines, catalogs, pamphlets, envelopes, dictionaries, etc.
 Please remove any attachments in the magazines before disposing them.

Newspapers and leaflets

A leaflet is any advertising paper delivered with a newspaper.
 Newspaper and insert ads do not need to be separated.